VACo Recognizes Winners of Go Green Program

RICHMOND (Nov. 13, 2012)—The Virginia Association of Counties (VACo) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2012 Go Green Awards, a program designed to encourage implementation of specific environmental policies and practical actions that not only reduce carbon emissions, but can save local governments money.

The winning counties are:

- Albemarle County
- Arlington County
- Chesterfield County
- Henrico County
- James City County
- Loudoun County
- Prince William County

This is the fourth year VACo has participated in the program, which was started by the Virginia Municipal League in 2007 and called “Go Green Virginia.”

The program is generously supported and sponsored by Moseley Architects and Trane.

“The winning counties represent a growing group of localities that believe in taking innovative steps to reduce energy usage and promote sustainability,” VACo Executive Director James D. Campbell said. “We are proud to be a part of this exciting program.”
