

Graphic Designer, City of Chesapeake, VA.

Are you experienced with Graphic Design and have a passion for public service? Do you have exceptional organizational skills and the ability to multi-task? Are you seeking a dynamic, team-oriented work environment? Then come join our team.

The City of Chesapeake seeks an experienced professional to serve as a Graphic Designer for the Public Communications department. The successful candidate will Conceptualize and execute visual design materials in support of City messages, working either from basic or more developed directions, specifications, and outcome goals. Produces finished graphic materials of all sorts, for use in departmental and Citywide messaging, with emphasis on clarity, accessibility, and adherence to City standards. Serves as lead design liaison for City departments on the use and implementation of the Canva graphic design suite, including developing templates, toolkits, and other resources for departments within Canva. Works as part of the overall Public Communications team to support the message development and performs other duties as assigned.

Requires a combination of education and experience equivalent to a bachelor's degree in graphic design or related field preferred. In addition to satisfying the vocational/education standards this job class required a minimum of two years of related, full-time equivalent experience. Employees may be expected to work hours in excess of their normally scheduled hours in response to short-term department needs and/or City-wide emergencies. Emergency operations support work and work locations may be outside of normal job duties. Hiring salary ranges from $50,852 to $67,379 depending upon qualification. To apply please complete online application at the following link, <https://jobs.cityofchesapeake.net/postings/12738>. Also attached an updated resume.